ICC Partnership and Sponsorship Opportunities 2027

About ICC

The International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) is the institutional representative of more than 45 million companies in over 170 countries. ICC's core mission is to make business work for everyone, every day, everywhere. Through a unique mix of advocacy, solutions and standard setting, we promote international trade, responsible business conduct and a global approach to regulation, in addition to providing market-leading dispute resolution services. Our members include many of the world's leading companies, SMEs, business associations and local chambers of commerce.

About ICC Dispute Resolution Services

ICC Dispute Resolution Services (DRS) provides trusted, neutral and globally accessible dispute resolution solutions for businesses, states and state entities worldwide. Comprising the ICC International Court of Arbitration® and the ICC International Centre for ADR, ICC DRS offers a comprehensive suite of services, including arbitration, mediation, expert proceedings, dispute boards and DOCDEX. As the world's most preferred and widely used arbitral institution, the ICC International Court of Arbitration® supervises and administers arbitrations at every stage of the process under the ICC Rules of Arbitration. With no restrictions on the nationality of parties or arbitrators, location, language or applicable law, ICC's services provide a reliable, efficient and impartial alternative to court litigation, backed by a century of expertise and a truly global network.

About ICC Institute of World Business Law

Since 1979, the ICC Institute of World Business Law has brought together the finest legal minds to strengthen links between international business practitioners and the legal profession. A global think-tank of more than 300 members, the Institute stages professional development and peer exchange opportunities activities year-round, in every region of the world. The Institute also works in close collaboration with the ICC's International Court of Arbitration and Policy Commissions.
